Spotlight of the Month: Dan Scott

This month's Associate Spotlight shines on Dan Scott, who joined the Valco Team on August 28 and is part of our sales group. Dan was born and raised in Mansfield, Ohio and graduated from Mansfield Christian High School (Go Flames) in 1985. He participated in basketball and soccer while in high school. After graduation he enrolled in The Ohio State University and graduated with a degree in journalism with a major in advertising and minor in photography. With his educational back ground Dan seems to be a great fit to take over the writing of the Valco newsletter.

After graduating from Ohio State, Dan accepted his first job with Air Waves in Columbus. Air Waves was a screen-printing business that also manufactured screen printing equipment. After being with Air Waves for 20 years the original founders sold the new business. The new owners made numerous changes and so Dan left and accepted a position with Carmen's Distribution Services in Columbus. They were one of the nation's top suppliers of vacuum cleaners, floor care products and equipment and janitorial supplies. Dan was in sales, as well as, a store manager for one of their retail stores.

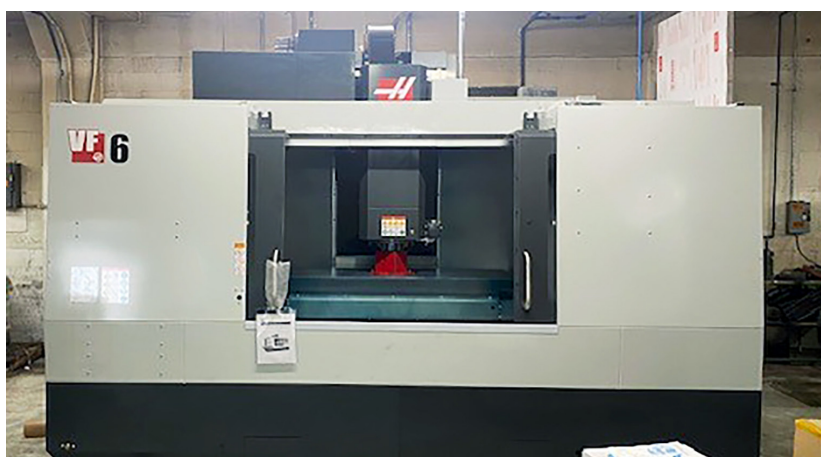

After three years at Carmen's, Dan took a sales position with Laser Technology. His sales territory covered Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky, and Indiana. Laser Technology is a worldwide leader in laser technology and manufacturers laser-based measurement technology/equipment. They provided high precision laser sensors for the mining/blasting industry, heavy construction, and speed measurements. If you have been ticketed for speeding by the Ohio Patrol, they may have been using one of Laser Technology's laser guns.

After over three years with them Dan accepted a position with Worthington Industries in their steel division. He covered Ohio and West Virginia, selling mostly coils of steel along with some flat sheet steel. His position was impacted by the onset of Covid and the significant slowdown of business from the automotive sector. In 2020 he joined Kaeser Compressors, a family-owned German based 100-year-old air compressor company. All of the parts were manufactured in Germany and assembled in Virginia. His sales territories included all of Ohio and Kentucky while based in Columbus.

Dan has been married to Sharon for 32 plus years. Sharon works for Trinity Health Systems in Columbus. They have one son, Alec, who they adopted in Ukraine some 23 years ago when he was 5 years old. They went through the International Adoption Agency and the entire adoption process took well over a year to complete. They spent over three weeks in Ukraine and several other European countries before finally being able to bring Alec home to Columbus. A great heartwarming story! In his free time Dan is very involved in his church, loves to root for The Ohio State Buckeyes, fish and hunt. It is great to have Dan with us and we look forward to working with him in the months and years ahead and successfully shipping the new and additional work he will be bringing us.
